AMAZING ANIMALS

The Southern Hairy-Nosed Wombat is one of the three wombats in the world! It is the smallest of the three species of wombats. It is the state animal of Southern Australia! The only Southern Hairy-Nosed Wombats ever recorded were a male and a female from Brookfield Zoo, outside of Chicago! Their names were Carver, who lived to be 34, and his mother, Vicky, who lived to be 24. The Southern Hairy-Nosed Wombat is adapted for digging. It digs with its flattened claws. The Southern Wombat can grow to be 10 to 14 inches! Also, it has a short tail hidden behind its fur!

Cool Hats

By Meagan Bittmanic

The Hat

Considering I'm doing cool hats for my article in the Skokie Tribune, I figured I would have to explain the hat itself.

Hats are head coverings, as everyone knows. People don't know, though, that hats can be used for expressing your social status, they can protect you; or if used in the army, hats can explain your rank, nationality, and even regiment.

One of the first places a trace of a hat is found is a marking on a tomb of a person wearing a straw hat. The Greek Petastos is the first known hat with a brim. The Fibula is also one of the first; it is a simple skull cap. In ancient times, there were even special hats for slaves!

Structured hats began to be worn in the early 16th century, when most men and women hats were very similar to each other.

In the first part of the 19th century, women started to wear bonnets. These bonnets gradually became larger and more decadent, with ribbons and feathers. In the 18th century, many other fashions were produced and designed, which is why we have such a wide selection of hats today.

During my hat-loving life, going to places like Wisconsin, I've learned that not only can you easily find normal hats, but you can just as easily find crazy hats and anything you can imagine!

I love hats and take any opportunity I get to receive one. If you love hats like I do, you don't like the no-hat rules at school, and take any opportunity to wear hats and buy them.

Do They Have What It Takes?

BY Henry Pelinski

Devastation, depression and shock hits Philadelphia as their QB, Michael Vick, drags his Eagles down broken bird lane. These Eagles aren't really 'Eagles' because of this pathetic 2-4 start. The Eagles have been very unpredictable this year, winning the first game they played against the Rams, made them seem like a first place team. Then losing the next four against the Falcons 35-31, the Giants 29-16, the 49ers 24-23 and the Bills 31-24, they looked like a horrible last place team. Finally, they pulled it off against the Redskins 20-13. The Eagles could end up either way, with a winning record or losing. They could lose 4 more games or win 4 more games. On all these games that the Eagles lost, it wasn't a blow-out. If Michael Vick can push himself and his receivers to get one or two more touchdowns and do his job right and the defense does their's-They will have a winning record at the end of this. Do they have what it takes? We'll have to see!

P.S. I HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM WITH BACON.

DEAR CHEESELUVER278,

TAKE THESE WORDS OF ADVICE: FOOD IS MEANT TO BE EATEN. OR IT WILL BE YOU WHO IS EATEN.
ELVIS.

P.S. IT IS BETTER TO EAT THE CHEESE, IT IS NOT PLEASANT TO BE EATEN.

IF YOU ATTACH A SNACK TO YOUR QUESTION IT WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE IN THE NEXT EDITION OF THE SKOKIE TRIB.

Ask Nancy

Everybody who's asking, thanks! Keep the questions coming!

Dear Nancy,

My mom finally said she'll get me a horse, but when?

Horseless

Dear Horseless,

I think you should find a time where neither of you are busy, and sit down and talk about it. Ask your questions then, and don't beg or whine or anything. Good luck, and, hopefully, you'll get your horse!

Dear Nancy,

I just started flute and am having trouble practicing. The band teacher wants me to do things that are too complicated. What should I do???

Out of tune

Dear Out of tune,

I used to play French horn, and I have been in your shoes. If I were you, I would talk to one of the band teachers and explain how you feel. That worked for me, and Mr. Vowles has helped me a lot! Remember, you are playing flute for fun, and if you don't like it, you can always stop.

Dear Nancy,

My friend hates me! What do I do!?!?

Sad

Dear Sad,

Sit down with her and talk. See her side of the story. If she doesn't listen, then it might be time to find a new friend. Eventually, though, she will drift back. Good luck!

CAM NEWTON

By Andy Paden

Cam Newton, quarterback for the Carolina panthers and the 2010 Heisman trophy winner, has been surprising every one this year. No one thought he deserved to be the first round pick. But this year Cam has been throwing for 422 yards in his rookie day debut and proved that he could play. It has just been five weeks, and he has already proven that he will be a nominee for the Rookie of the Year. He had only 6 interceptions has thrown for 7 touchdowns with only two fumbles. I can already tell that Cam Newton will be one of the best rookies quarterbacks of all time.

Freedom Finally by Brendan Kempff

It is was legendary news for Libya and the city of Tripoli. The news after 42 years of dictatorship, Muammar Gaddafi has been finally been killed. The country has been recently at war, as many of you know. The goal of that war was freedom of him. He has also made many horrible laws one of which is that women were not able to be seen and must stay inside. If you have heard or have been following the news, you most likely have heard what feels like a never ending battle between Gaddafi's followers and the rebels. But now, hopefully, the fighting and suffering is finally over as Gaddafi is laying in his grave. As people fly the Libyan flag,shoot guns and fireworks in the sky, and many other things. Now women can celebrate by going outside and the many people in hiding can come out. Gaddafi is dead!!!!!!!

GREEN FACTS AND WAYS TO SAVE THE ENVIRONMENT

BY JUSTIN WIDEN

BUY LOCAL

How much pollution is made getting food from the farm to your table? Try to buy food from farmers in your area or farmers' markets. This supports your local economy and reduces the amount of greenhouse gas created when products are flown or trucked into your area.

USE RECHARGABLE BATTERIES

Every year mostly disposable alkaline batteries are made and sold. Only a few of those are recycled. What can you do? Buy a charger and a few sets of rechargeable batteries. Although it is a little more money for the charger and batteries, it is one that should pay off in no time. And what should you do on Christmas morning when all the stores are closed? You'll be fully stocked with rechargeable batteries.

Who Will Win St. Louis Cardinals Or Texas Rangers?

By Caroline Paden

If you cannot decide on which team you will root for, I suggest you root for the Cardinals. I think the Cardinals will win the World Series. If you want the Texas Rangers to win, think about it. In the past years, the Cardinals made it and won against the Detroit Tigers in 2006. Now 5 years later, and they will win again. So get ready for the World Series, and watch the Cardinals win it all. Also look at all the progress the Cardinals made. First, they got the wild card. Then recently the Cardinals were down 2 to 0 in the series and came back and won the series 4 to 2. The final score was 12 to 6. Sit back and relax and just watch the Cardinals win the World Series.
